The Ellinikon City: The New City

A feat like no other, The Ellinikon City is going to be a sprawling 2,000,000 sqm of vibrant sustainable green space that will redefine the coastal front of Athens, and make a lasting impact on the community, prosperity, and quality of life of all residents. With plans to be fully self-sustainable from its foundations,

The Ellinikon City is geared to be the largest coastal park in Europe and one of the largest in the world. The park will transform the Ellinikon area into the main commercial and recreational hub of Greece with cultural events, sports, public health, and personal wellbeing being at the forefront of its platform. The mega-city will include luxury apartments, villas, hotels, a casino, and ample office spaces - all for the comfort and luxury of residents, visitors, and investors. Of course, the park will be open to all, whether that's an everyday walk to work or a special spot for recreation, The Ellinikon is bound to elevate the way all locals live their day-to-day lives.

A New Experience

Connecting the heart of Athens with its coastline, The Ellinikon City will set new benchmarks for the future of integrated, sustainable living, smart infrastructure, and groundbreaking innovation. The cost of this mega-city is sitting at €8 billion, making it one of Europe's most innovative and exciting destinations for locals and international visitors alike, for international tourism, local interest, and great investment.

Oasis Suites & Apartments Athens is ideally located less than a 10-minute walk from the developing Ellinikon City, making it one of the smartest and sought-after investments in Athens. A contemporary and meticulously-designed residential building that offers fully-furnished luxury apartments, ideal for both short and long term rentals, as well as for life-changing investments.
